

HELPING MEN ACCEPT BEING CAREGIVERS AT HOME AND ALLIES TO WORKING MOMS IN THE OFFICE

PAUL SULLIVAN

Paul founded The Company of Dads. Its mission is to help Lead Dads feel less isolated and more confident that they have made the correct choice to take on the bulk of the parenting and family duties - or, at the very least, not embrace stereotypes around who does what at home.

Before starting The Company of Dads in 2021, Paul wrote the Wealth Matters column in The New York Times for 13 years.

Paul lives in New Canaan, Connecticut, with his wife, their three daughters, and three dogs.
